

ABOUT SOURCE ONE SPARES

Source One Spares specializes in the global sourcing, distribution, and sustainment of aircraft for the U.S. Government and allied partners. Established in 1997, we have over two decades of aviation supply chain and repair experience providing aviation parts, assemblies, support equipment, managed repair (integrator services), and teaming-partner manufacturing capability to support operational readiness worldwide.

We maintain a global network of Original Equipment Manufacturers, authorized distributors, aviation-surplus providers, and FAA Part 145 repair stations. The company's logistics and procurement infrastructure supports mission-critical requirements including expedited sourcing and worldwide delivery 24 hours a day, 365 days per year.

Parts shipped have traceability compliance and FAA 8130 certification.
